ORDER

On August 9, 2013, Complainant Joanne Schivarelli (“Schivarelli”) filed a complaint against her former employer, Respondent Taglia Advanced Dentistry (“Respondent”), for discrimination based on her age in violation of the Cook County Human Rights Ordinance. The Cook County Commission on Human Rights (“Commission”) has not yet made an evidence determination with respect to this matter, but on January 21, 2015, the Commission received a fully executed Withdrawal Request Form (“Request”) from Schivarelli.

Pursuant to the Commission’s Procedural Rules:

A Complainant may request to withdraw a Complaint or any part thereof at any time. A Complainant's request to withdraw a Complaint shall be in writing and shall be signed by the Complainant or his/her attorney of record. Under such circumstances, the request may be presumed to be knowingly and voluntarily made, and the Commission may approve the request and enter an order dismissing the Complaint.

CCHR Pro. R. 420.160.

The Request, which was signed by Schivarelli, states that she has “reached an amicable settlement with the Respondent.” Additionally, in the Request, Schivarelli attests that she is making her request to withdraw voluntarily and without pressure from any organization or individual.

For the foregoing reasons, the Commission hereby grants Schivarelli’s request to withdraw her complaint and orders that complaint 2013E022 be DISMISSED pursuant to a VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL.
